

What People Say...

'Our introduction to Cheryl was back in early 2016 through our solicitor while we were updating our wills and reviewing IHT and retirement planning, etc. Although being a UK CFO within the large multinational company, I did not have the time nor the knowledge of the intricate personal financial management. This is where Cheryl came into our lives. The most important thing we liked about Cheryl was that she was very approachable, humble, and down to earth. None of the high powered, fancy "know it all stuff"

She explains everything in a simple language with her famous outline drawings!! which we love and find them easy to comprehend the ideas/concept. Our investments and pension funds were in too many different areas and difficult to keep track of. Cheryl guided us to consolidate, based on our risk appetite and medium/long term needs. Bowden uses the most reputable financial analytics tool providers in the market to support their advice and guidance. Cheryl is professional, good humoured, and with immense empathy. We have no hesitation in recommending her services.'

Mr & Mrs C - London

'Cheryl's help and advice has proved invaluable to me. She is knowledgeable, professional and calm. She is responsive to your specific situation making suggestions and providing reassurance. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend her services'

Mrs E - Hertfordshire

'In our dealings with Cheryl over many years we have always found her advice extremely useful, her reaction to matters prompt and ability to offer financial planning advice and investments both appropriate to our needs and fully supported with data'

Mr & Mrs P - Oxfordshire

'For those who are uninitiated about the world of finance, and I count myself as one of them, Cheryl is a god send. She explains all your options clearly, which helps making financial decisions so much easier. Cheryl is very personable and builds great customer relations. I cannot recommend her professional services highly enough.'

Jane - Essex

'Your sound advice and caring manner, during a very difficult and emotional time, helped me to secure my present situation and to plan for my future. I feel confident that my pension is in safe hands with Bowden Financial Management Ltd'

D.G - Hertfordshire

'Cheryl was recommended to me by two different people. She has been professional, friendly and has given good advice to me. She has looked at the whole picture before giving any recommendations.'

Diane - Hertfordshire

'We have always found Cheryl helpful, friendly and sympathetic, not only to our investment needs, but also to those of my late mother. We appreciate her efficiency, the effort that she puts into her work and the fact that she travels to our house to discuss our finances.'

Dr & Mrs H - Essex

'My introduction to Cheryl arose through my house sale and the wish to invest the proceeds to create income for the future. Cheryl was able to identify my requirements and understood my expectations and explained various scenarios concisely and with clarity. Having limited experience of investment I was delighted to meet a person I felt I could trust and one who considered my individual circumstances in giving her advice and recommendations.'

Elaine - Hertfordshire
